LANGLEY HOUSE TRUST HELPING PEOPLE TO LIVE CRIME-FREE LIVES

Langley House Trust is a Christian charity helping ex-offenders to turn the lives around. Over 97% of men and women stay crime-free whilst with Langley. Those coming out of prison face stigma when trying to reintegrate into their communities and need support and care in pursuing transformation. Prayer is essential in for breakthrough. Thank you for joining us to pray for the men and women we work with.

Pray for those seeking employment. Only 12% of employers will employ someone with a criminal record. Ask God for breakthrough: for more employers prepared to provide opportunities to those with a criminal record.

A Prayer for the Nation: God of hope, in these times of change, unite our nation and guide our leaders with your wisdom. Give us courage to overcome our fears and help us to build a future in which all may prosper and share, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

We pray for those in need: Pepita Aris, John Arkell, Ryan Bain, Simon Barker, Alison and John Beaumont, Sally Bowyer, Maud Bruce, Peter Burchell, Christine Burden, Sylvia Burdett, Louise Burrows, Eunice Carter, Charlie Chesser, Cynthia Dimmock, Gwen & Tony Hayward, John Jeffries, Sheila Johnson, Ruth Keens, Joan Macey, Brian Mawhinney, Derek Mayhew, Philip Sewter, Christine Tarry

We pray for those who mourn following the death of : Anne Banner, Ken Barraclough, David Cutmore, Dermot Hogan, Dorothy Sumner, Diana Wenley

Sometimes we face particular crises in our lives. Our Pastoral Care Team is there to support those in need. If you, or anyone you know, needs support, please let the office know.

Over the next few weeks at the 9:45 service we will begin by watching a short video produced by the Evangelical Alliance where we will hear a person's story of coming to faith in Jesus. Hearing people's stories can be a great encouragement, and can help us to feel more confident in sharing our own story with others. The video will begin without introduction at the start of the service each week.

Join us on Mon 30 Sept (please note the new date—changed from Sept 25th) to hear some reflections from Stephen about his Sabbatical, and to pray for our church as we enter this new season.

All welcome at 7.30pm in church. A written reflection from Stephen will be available for those unable to come. God calls His people to be dependent on Him, and prayer is a vital part of this. Please do come if you can.

Thank you! To everyone who has involved in any way with Chattabox and Chattabox+ this summer. We were blessed by enthusiastic helpers, cooks, leaders, prayer warriors and in all kinds of other ways too. It was a great week where 125 children and 55 young people learnt more about following and serving Jesus. One of our young people, who recently returned from the Soul Survivor festival writes:

"I really became closer to God through the meetings and got to understand more about the Christian faith through the seminars that I went to. It really helped me combat some of my self doubt and I felt like God was there with me."
Praise God for all the ways that our children and young people have grown in faith this summer!
